Dear Hartland High Families,

We are delighted to offer students at Hartland High Academy free peripatetic guitar, bass, and ukulele lessons.

- Lessons will be 30 minutes long and take place once a fortnight during the school day.
- Sessions are completely free of charge and available on a first come, first serve basis.
- No prior experience is required – just enthusiasm and a passion for learning something new.

If your child is interested, please complete the short registration form via the following link. Spaces are limited, so we encourage you to register as soon as possible to avoid disappointment.

We believe this is a wonderful chance for students to build confidence, discover a new skill, and enjoy the many benefits that learning a musical instrument can bring.

Yours faithfully,

Andy Creffield
Associate Assistant Headteacher (Culture and Ethos)

Emily Davey, Headteacher
